

Modal verbs

I. Decide if the sentence is a prohibition, an obligation or an advice/recommendation.

1. I think the best thing you can do is to take a rest.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

2. You shouldn't be upset, she is your mum.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

3. Pets are not permitted here.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

4. Clean your bedroom before I go back!

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

5. You must send the test before midnight.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

6. Why don't you wake up earlier?

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

7 I suggest you talk to her and tell her the truth.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

8. You mustn't touch the object of the museum.

- a) Prohibition
- b) Obligation
- c) Advice

II. Change the sentence using must, mustn't, should and shouldn't keeping the same meaning.

1. I suggest you have breakfast before going to school.

You _____.

2. Your dog is not permitted in this building.

You _____.

3. The best thing you can do is to eat fruits and vegetables.

You _____.

4. It is prohibited to eat in class.

You _____.

5. You need a haircut.

You _____.

6. It is not allowed to wear piercings in the school.

You _____.

7. You have to wear your face mask all the time.

You _____.

8. Why don't you stop smoking?

You _____.