Animals in England

In the past, there were about 4,000 birds in London's Trafalgar Square. The government said that there were ¹ too many birds. ² _____ you looked, you saw one! The birds damaged buildings and the City of London spent ³ _____ money cleaning them. The government made it illegal for ⁴ _____ to feed the birds ⁵ _____ in the square. Now there are about 200 birds in the square; enough for the photographers, but ⁶ _____ to cause problems.

⁷ _____ people driving in the north of England see ⁸ _____ that surprises them: wallabies! ⁹ _____ brought the animals from Australia many years ago but they escaped in the 1930s. They didn't leave to find ¹⁰ _____ warmer, they stayed in the area. They nearly all died in a very cold winter forty years ago. Luckily, there are still some there, but ¹¹ _____ knows exactly how many.
