D. Answer the following questions in a complete sentence.

1. When does a thing seem smaller than it really is?
   A thing seems smaller than it really is when it moves away.

2. Who gave the King a toy nightingale?
   The king of another country gave the King a toy nightingale.

3. Why did the toy nightingale stop singing?
   The toy nightingale stopped singing because something inside it broke.

4. Who made the King well again?
   The real nightingale made the King well again.

5. How did the nightingale sing?
   The nightingale sang sweetly.

6. When the King heard the nightingale sing for the first time, what was he doing?
   When the King heard the nightingale sing for the first time, he was sitting by a window reading a book.

7. Why did the King want the nightingale very much?
   The King wanted the nightingale very much because the bird had a very sweet voice and it sang beautifully.

8. What kind of a voice did the nightingale have?
   The nightingale had a very sweet voice.

9. What did the King do to make the toy nightingale sing? ,
   The King wound up the toy nightingale by turning the little key to make it sing.

10. Who were happy when the King became well again?
    The King's men and doctors were happy when the King became well again.

11. When do we say that fire is a good servant?
    We say that fire is a good servant when it does many good things for us.

12. When do we say that fire is a bad master?
    We say that fire is a bad master when it does many bad things for us.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

13. What did people of long ago use fire for? (Your answer must have three points.)
People of long ago used fire to keep themselves warm, to drive away dangerous animals, and to cook their food.

14. What do some farmers use fire for?
Some farmers use fire to drive away insects and wild animals.

15. Why must a fireman be brave?
A fireman must be brave because he will have to climb up to high places and work up there.

16. Why must a fireman be strong and healthy?
A fireman must be strong and healthy because he must be able to carry heavy people and heavy things.

17. What do firemen usually use to put out a fire?
Firemen usually use water to put out a fire.

18. What do firemen use to reach high windows?
Firemen use long ladders to reach high windows.

19. If the poet is not known, what do we write?
If the poet is not known, we write "Anonymous".

20. Why do people hunt elephants?
People hunt elephants because they want to sell the elephants' tusks.

21. If an elephant is tame, what does he do?
If an elephant is tame, he does what he is made to do.

22. What is a person who writes poems called?
A person who writes poems is called a poet.

23. What is a person who treats the sick people called?
A person who treats the sick people is called a doctor.

24. What is a person who draws and paints pictures called?
A person who draws and paints pictures is called an artist.

25. What is a person who works on a farm called?
A person who works on a farm is called a farmer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

26. What do these lines mean?

In Asia, in Africa
The elephant is found;

These lines mean that the elephant is found in Asia and Africa.

27. What do these lines mean?

He larger is than any beast
That walks upon the ground.

These lines mean that the elephant is bigger than any other animal that lives on earth.

28. What do these lines mean?

When tame, he gentle is and mild,
And does what he's desired;

These lines mean that if an elephant is tame, he is gentle and mild, and he does what he is made to do.

29. What do these lines mean?

But if he's mocked or treated ill,
With anger he is fired.

These lines mean that if an elephant is teased or treated badly, he becomes very angry.

30. What do these lines mean?

When wild he's hunted by the men,
That they his tusks may sell;

These lines mean that if an elephant is wild, it is hunted by people because the people want to sell the elephant's tusks.

31. What do these lines mean?

These tusks are ivory, we learn;
Its use we all can tell.

These lines mean that the tusk of an elephant is called ivory and we all can tell the use of ivory.

LIVEWORKSHEETS