CONJUNCTIONS

And and or are conjunctions.

- And is used to join two nouns.

He has a helmet and gloves.

- Or is used to join two nouns. It shows a choice.

Would you like to have rice or noodles?

Noodles, please.

Fill in the blanks with and or or.

1 Do you want a storybook _____ a magazine?

2 She gave me a stamp _____ an envelope.

3 They have some fruits _____ vegetables.

4 Would you like a hairband _____ a scarf?

5 Kate likes to draw flowers _____ fruits.

6 Would you like to sit here _____ there?

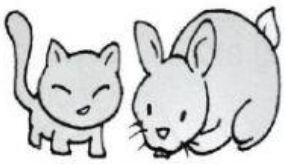

7 Hasnah wants a skirt _____ a blouse.

8 The dog _____ the cat are fighting.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Look at the pictures. Complete the sentences with the given phrases.

and a rabbit | or a rabbit | and a kitten

Kim saw a kitten  _____ (1).

Her mother said, "Would you like a kitten

_____ (2)?" Kim said, "May I have a rabbit

_____ (3)?" "No. You can only have one."

Join the sentences with and or or.

1 I have a computer. I have a radio.

_____

2 Would you like a cake? Would you like a biscuit?

_____

3 Sheila wants a fork. Sheila wants a spoon.

_____

4 Father likes to jog. Father likes to play games.

_____

5 Do you want water? Do you want milk?

_____

6 Would you like to stand? Would you like to sit?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS