

Mathematics
Doubles Addition

Use the  to model. Complete the addition number sentence.

[2]

|                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  _____ + _____ = _____ |  _____ + _____ = _____ |
|  _____ + _____ = _____ |  _____ + _____ = _____ |

Add to find the sum. Select the doubles facts. [6]

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
| 4   | 5   | 7   | 0   |
| + 4 | + 0 | + 7 | + 9 |

Raj and Sam have 6  in all. Raj have 3 . How many  does Sam have? [1]

$$\underline{3} + \underline{\quad} = \underline{6}$$

There were five frogs on the log. Then five more frogs came and sat on the log. How many frogs were there altogether?
Use the signs to complete the sentence. [2]

[2]

= +

_____  _____  _____