

LISTENING PART 4

TOPIC 1: Office Announcements 1

1. What is the purpose of this announcement?

- (A) To inspect the organization
- (B) To announce an award
- (C) To ask for volunteers
- (D) To thank staff for participation

2. What is the reason for the change?

- (A) It will create less waste.
- (B) It will reduce complaints.
- (C) It will take less time.
- (D) It will be more economical.

3. Who most likely are the listeners?

- (A) Donors
- (B) Department managers
- (C) Customers
- (D) Catering staff

4. What will be discussed today?

- (A) A customer survey
- (B) A store move
- (C) A new product
- (D) A store layout

5. According to the speaker, what did customers ask for?

- (A) Larger shopping space
- (B) More diverse products
- (C) Home delivery
- (D) Personal shopping help

6. What are the listeners asked to provide?

- (A) Survey results
- (B) Product lists
- (C) Meeting notes
- (D) Sample coupons

7. Where most likely are the listeners?

- (A) At a botanical garden
- (B) At a museum
- (C) At a broadcasting company
- (D) At a photography studio

8. What was given to the listeners before?

- (A) A meal ticket
- (B) A map
- (C) An exhibit pamphlet
- (D) An ID badge

9. What is mentioned about the new collaborative exhibit?

- (A) It is the first of its kind.
- (B) It hasn't been opened to the public yet.
- (C) It includes a feature film.
- (D) It will only be open to area residents.

10. What is the purpose of this announcement?

- (A) To publicize maintenance work
- (B) To ask employees to take home personal items
- (C) To announce an emergency drill
- (D) To report budget spending

11. What does the speaker mean when she says, "When else can we do it?"

- (A) To emphasize the tight schedule
- (B) To ask for help with repairs
- (C) To stress the importance of the work
- (D) To get suggestions for other work schedules

12. What are staff asked to do?

- (A) Move fragile items
- (B) Rearrange their desks
- (C) Contact another department
- (D) Prepare some documents