Today you will learn something new, said Ms. Vacca. You will learn how to check your spelling with your computer. That's what I need, said Amir. I'm not a really good speller. Ms. Vacca said, This program can help you. However, it won't find certain kinds of mistakes. What kinds won't it find? asked Sopa.

Sometimes, said Ms. Vacca, you can misspell one word by writing another word correctly. You mean, like writing "t-h-e-i-r" instead of "t-h-e-r-e"? asked Amir. That's exactly what I mean, said Ms. Vacca, and most computers won't catch that kind of mistake.
