Match the imperative command with its consequence

Go to the shop

Finish that glass

Invite them

Get out of bed the second you wake up

Tell me everything you know

Start smoking marijuana when you're a teenager

Tell him

Take this experimental medicine

Take the bin out

Leave now,

Finish your dinner

and we'll see what happens in a few years.

and he won't be very happy.

and you won't be able to when you're an adult.

and your mum will be happy

you might catch her.

and you will see their new desert range and I'll give you some desert.

and you'll feel great all day.

and we'll see if they come and I'll get you another.

and I'll let you go.

Match the condition with its imperative

| If they ask you if you want any, | take it for a walk every day. |
| If you start, | if you trust the government. |
| If they score | brush them every day. |
| If you make dinner now, | if you want. |
| If you tell your parents, | You´ll have a problem |
| If you want to have a good time, | don't stop until you're finished. |
| If you have a dog, | don't come back. |
| If you like her, | speed up our style of play. |
| If you want it, | |
| If you do that, | say that you don't |
| Expect the worst | go with them. |
| Tell them | tell her. |
| See what happens | take it. |
| If you want to have white teeth, | go there now. |
| If you want to see it, | clean the kitchen when you´re finished. |
