

No tears will be shed

a song by Alan Smith Robertson

<https://youtu.be/zl0Y1JQ9yok>

Pre-listening activities

Put the quantifiers below into the correct place in the table.
Be careful! Some of the quantifiers can be both countable and uncountable

	COUNTABLE	UNCOUNTABLE
- a lot - all - any - both - enough - a few - little - many - much / too much - no - nothing - plenty - some	Large or sufficient quantities: Not large (or small) quantities:	Large or sufficient quantities: Not large (or small) quantities:

- The title of this song is “no tears will be shed”.
 - Which of the pictures below do you think is a person “shedding a tear”?

- OK, so maybe now can you explain the meaning of the song title “no tears will be shed”?
- When do people shed tears?
- When was the last time you shed a tear?

Try to guess which quantifiers go in each gap. Then listen to the song to check.
Some of the quantifiers are repeated.

VERSE 1 This is my story, it began _____ years ago
 And in _____ hours it will come to an end
 For the gallows are waiting to take me away from here
 And _____ the women I wronged will have their revenge

CHORUS And I know that in the end
 I will want _____ more days with you
 And I fear that when I go
 _____ tears will be shed

VERSE 2 I am hated by _____ of men who I'd stolen from
 And by _____ of their wives who gave me their hearts
 I cared very _____ what _____ of them thought of me
 Or that stealing their kisses could do so _____ harm

CHORUS Yet I know that in the end
 I will want _____ more days with you
 And I fear that when I go
 _____ tears will be shed

VERSE 3 That is _____ of my story I wanted to share with you
 It's not worth _____, but then nor is my love _____ of us now have to go on our separate ways
 And _____ of you is never _____

CHORUS 'Cause I know that in the end
 I will want _____ more days with you
 And I fear that when I go
 _____ tears will be shed

 Yes I know that in the end
 I've done _____ to deserve your love
 But I fear that when I go
 _____ tears will be shed

Post-listening activities

- In your own words, try to summarise the story of the narrator