A STRANGE STORY

When I was seven years old, my family left the big city and moved to the countryside. I was very excited because our new house was near a beautiful forest.

One day, I decided to go for a walk to explore it, but I lost my way. I tried to get back, but I just went further and further inside. I looked around and started calling for help, but no one heard me. I was confused and scared because it was almost dark, so I sat under a tree and began to cry.

Suddenly, I heard someone coming. It was a boy my age. "Hi," he said. "I'm Philip. What's the matter?" I told Philip that I was lost. "Don't worry," said Philip. "I live near here. I know the forest well."

We walked and talked until we were back out again. Philip said goodbye and left before I could thank him.

When I got home my mom was talking to a policeman. They were both very upset. "Oh, Tom, thank goodness you're OK!" my mom said when she saw me. "I lost my way in the forest, mom, but I'm fine now. I'm so sorry." I said. "You were lucky, young man," the policeman said. "Never play alone in there, it's too dangerous. Eight years ago, a young boy named Philip MacMann lost his way in that same place and never came back."

I did not say a word. I wanted to tell them about the boy who helped me, but I was afraid they wouldn't believe me. Did a ghost help me? I couldn't sleep that night, or the next.

I never saw Philip again and I never went back there!
