Ambitious teenagers?

We asked some teens to tell us about their ambitions, and we discovered that teenagers today really want to do well in life. Here are some of their replies below.

If I do well at school, I'll go to Harvard University in the USA. Harvard is famous for law but that's not what I want to study there. I'll probably do political science or business. I hope that one day I'll start my own company.

Hayley

I don't think I'll spend my life trying to be rich or famous. When I leave school, I'll study to be something that will help other people – a doctor, perhaps, or a charity worker. I won't go to college if training isn't necessary. I hope I'll change the world in a small way.

My love is music and I won't stop working hard until I become a professional musician. I learned to play the guitar and violin when I was young and I'm sure I'll learn other instruments. I love the sound of the saxophone!
