The Road Not Taken / Robert Frost

The Dilemma

Created by Naomi Ganin Epstein

https://visualisingideas.edublogs.org/

- The pictures in this worksheet were created using the comics generator at Make Beliefs Comix

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Instructions:

1. Read what each person suggested the speaker do.
2. Complete the speaker's reply. Use the sentence bank below.

1. I can't take the more beautiful road because both roads are just as fair. 2. One road leads to other roads. I doubt I will ever come back. I have to make a choice. 3. I can't take both roads because I'm only one traveler. 4. It's possible that my choice will make all the difference. That's why I am nervous. 5. You are right, I will sigh. But will be a sigh of regret or relief? 6. I have no idea what to expect because the road disappears into the undergrowth. 7. I'll consider that although both roads have been worn about the same.

1. The speaker's reply was:

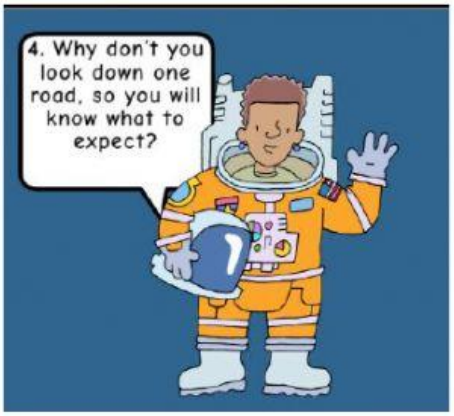

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. The speaker's reply was:

3. The speaker's reply was:

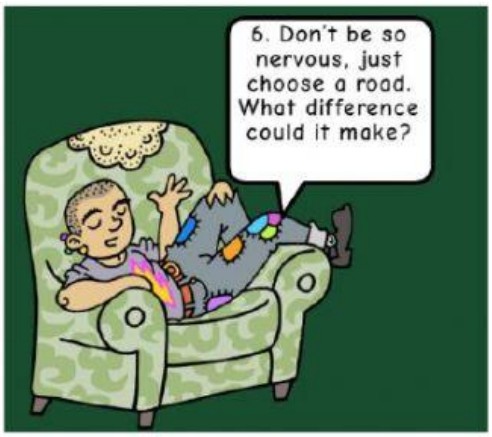

4. The speaker's reply was:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. The speaker's reply was:

6. The speaker's reply was:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. The speaker's reply was:

LIVEWORKSHEETS