

1 Use the prompts and the verb forms in brackets to write questions.

- 1 Why / you cry? (present continuous)
Why are you crying?
- 2 How / you get here (past simple)
.....
- 3 What / Jack usually do / on Saturdays (present simple)
.....
- 4 How long / you live here (present perfect)
.....
- 5 Where / David / go (past continuous)
.....
- 6 Who / you talk to (present continuous)
.....
- 7 What / you do (past continuous)
.....
- 8 When / you usually / get up (present simple)
.....
- 9 What / Jack / do (present perfect)
.....
- 10 What / Mark and Sue / buy (past simple)
.....

2 Complete each question.

- 1 'What makes you tired ?' 'Running makes me tired.'
- 2 'Who ?' 'I talked to the manager.'
- 3 'What ?' 'I read a newspaper.'
- 4 'Who ?' 'Kate brought the ice-cream.'
- 5 'What ?' 'Joe decided to take the job.'
- 6 'Who ?' 'I answer most of the questions.'
- 7 'Which ?' 'This house is mine.'
- 8 'Who ?' 'Pat looks after the children.'
- 9 'What ?' 'Helen studies chemistry.'
- 10 'What ?' 'A spider has eight legs.'

3 Change the answers in brackets into short answers.

- 1 'What are you eating?' (I'm eating a sandwich.) A sandwich
- 2 'Who helps you?' (My teacher helps me.)
- 3 'What do you watch?' (I watch cartoons.)
- 4 'Who do you write to?' (I write to my penfriend.)
- 5 'What makes you laugh?' (You make me laugh!)
- 6 'Who loves you?' (Somebody loves me!)