

PRESENT SIMPLE (Interrogative form)

We use Do or Does to make questions. Do I/You/We/They eat bread? Does He/She/It eat bread?	The verb doesn't change in 3rd person singular. Does she eats bread? Does she eat bread? ✓	Answers Yes, I do . No, I don't . Yes, she does . No, she doesn't .
--	---	---

Complete the interrogative sentences with DO or DOES. Then, complete the answers with the correct subject and auxiliary (do/don't - does/doesn't).

Example: Does Charly tidy his room? No, he doesn't.

- _____ Christine do her homework? Yes, _____
- _____ Tom and Charlie take photos? Yes, _____
- _____ Sarah buy new clothes? No, _____
- _____ the dog run in the park? No, _____
- _____ they eat at one o'clock? Yes, _____
- _____ my mother wear long dresses? Yes, _____
- _____ my friend need glasses? No, _____
- _____ we stay at home on Sundays? No, _____
- _____ my sister and I go to the cinema on Saturdays? Yes, _____

Rewrite the affirmative sentences to interrogatives.

Example: She works at the bank. → Does she work at the bank?

- You play football on Wednesdays. _____
- They catch the bus at eight o'clock. _____
- My aunt wakes up at half past six. _____
- He fights a lot with his friend. _____
- Her uncle wears dark blue trousers to work. _____