

My Librarian is a Camel

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: In the sentences below, choose the correct vocabulary word from the word bank.

Word Bank

isolated	virtual	access	devour	impassable
remote	obtain	preserve	extremes	avid

1. It is amazing that camels are able to carry books to children in _____, nomadic villages throughout northeast Nairobi.
2. Some communities in Canada are too small to have their own public libraries, so places like Fort Liard have a _____ library which offers Internet access.
3. In Mongolia, to _____ culture and traditions, children are being taught language called Cyrillic Mongolian script where you write vertically from top to bottom.
4. The roads to Bulla Iftin in Kenya are _____ because of the desert sands that cause harm to cars.
5. In Peru, the books are brought to rural schools by wagon, and excited children have turned into _____ readers.
6. The villages in the northwest territories of Canada are very _____ because of the long distances and extreme weather.
7. Mr. Dashdondog was able to _____ a minibus and ten thousand books, mostly donated by Japan.
8. The Mongolian climate is one of _____, where it is very cold in winter and very hot and dry in summer.
9. Internet _____ is a huge advantage to people who do not have local libraries.
10. In the remote areas of Canada's arctic, children excitedly check their mail every day to see if a new brown bag of books arrive so they can read and " _____ " them.