▶ Commas: Use proofreader's marks to insert the necessary commas in each sentence.

1. I enjoy the winter months of November December and January.
2. On Saturday January 5 2019 we celebrated Madelyn's birthday.
3. Yes Dad said we may go sledding this weekend.
4. Grandma would you like me to shovel the snow off your sidewalk?
5. The town of Fraser Colorado is one of the coldest places in the United States.

▶ Run-On Sentences: Correct these run-on sentences by adding a comma and the best joining word from the box.

6. You may practice your piano you may help Mom make lunch. _____

_____

7. You may play outside you must wear your jacket. _____

_____

and or but

▶ Nouns: Find the following kinds of nouns and write them in the blanks.

8. Let's get our hats and gloves, and play in the snow! Write 3 common nouns.

_____ _____ _____

9. My brothers and I saw two moose and a deer standing in the snow. Write 2 plural nouns. _____ _____

10. We made paper snowflakes and marshmallow snowmen in school last week. Write 2 compound nouns. _____ _____

Escaneado con CamScanner

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Sentences: (1) Identify each sentence by writing Dec., Int., Imp., or Exc. in the blank. (2) Use proofreader's marks to add the correct punctuation to the end of each sentence.

_____ 11. I can't believe how much snow fell last night

_____ 12. Mom said we may go outside to play

_____ 13. Find your warm socks and boots

_____ 14. I love to make snow angels

_____ 15. Do you want to make a snow fort

_____ 16. Help me roll this giant snowball

_____ 17. This snowman is huge

_____ 18. May I use your sled, please

_____ 19. Hold on tightly as we sled down this hill

_____ 20. What fun we had playing in the snow

Compound Nouns: Underline the compound nouns. Watch for compound nouns that are more than one word.

21. Wesley and his friend Jake plan to play baseball next spring.

22. Kelly remembered to pack her toothbrush and toothpaste in her backpack when she visited her grandmother last weekend.

23. Mrs. Adams gave Colten two goldfish and a fishbowl for his birthday.

24. You will need your raincoat, umbrella, and boots if you go outside this morning.

25. Last Saturday, Mandy found three pink seashells at the beach.

Escaneado con CamScanner
LIVEWORKSHEETS