5. Read the interview. Tick (✓) the things he did and put a cross (✗) next to the things he didn't do.

Presenter	Tell us about your first film, Bob.
Bob	I studied at a school, and my first film was a western.
Presenter	What did you study?
Bob	I studied medicine at that time.
Presenter	Really? Did you have to do anything in the film that you learnt at school?
Bob	Well, I was in one scene where I had to save a man who was hurt. But it was not real, of course.
Presenter	What about make-up and costumes?
Bob	You need make-up because the lights are very strong. And I had to dress like a cowboy.
Presenter	What do you remember most about the film?
Bob	The hot weather. And the lines. There

6. Read the text about the film Rapunzel and mark the sentences true (T) or false (F)

There was a man and woman, who really wanted a child, but they did not have one. The wife became very sick. The only flower that could cure her was in the witch's garden. The man went there, but the witch caught him. He had to promise that he would give her his first child.

Rapunzel was born, and they gave her to the witch. She grew and she was a beautiful young woman with long blonde hair. The witch wanted to protect her from the world, so she locked her in a castle, with only one window. The witch visited Rapunzel everyday and she called up to Rapunzel, "Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your golden hair." Rapunzel did not like the witch.

Then a Prince heard her singing from the window, and fell in love. He watched the witch, and did the same thing as she. He called "Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your golden hair." He got to Rapunzel, and they fell in love. They wanted to get married. But the witch learnt about the prince and cut Rapunzel's hair off.

When the prince came for Rapunzel, the witch let the hair down. When the Prince saw the witch, he jumped from the window, fell into a bush, and he couldn't see anything. He was lost in the forest. But in the end Rapunzel and the Prince found each other and her tears cured him.
