

II. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

How honest are you? (1) _____ (you/ ever/ tell) a lie? Did people believe you? According to research, whether it's to avoid (2) _____ (get) in an argument or to get what we want, we (3) _____ (always/ tell) lies. Linda White is a good example. Last year Linda got engaged. Unfortunately, she (4) _____ (not like) some of the friends her husband had invited to the engagement party. What did she do? She invited them all, but on the wrong day! People also lie about their careers. Some add extra qualifications to their CV. Robert Pool (5) _____ (work) as a retail manager for three years. When he (6) _____ (interview) for his job he said that he (7) _____ (study) at university. He hadn't, but his employers believed him. Luckily, they (8) _____ (never/ find out). But how can we tell if someone is lying? The answer is their body language. So if you make a new friend, (9) _____ (watch) their body language. It (10) _____ (probably/ reveal) more than you think!

(Adapted from Maths Intermediate - Oxford)

III. Complete each of the following sentences in such a way that it means the same as the original sentence.

1. "What's your favourite film?" he asked me. MY
He asked _____ me _____.
2. When he was little he played a lot of football but when he was 16 he gave up. USED
He _____ at 16.
3. It's very important that we are early. MUSTN'T
We _____.
4. Someone repaired my bike for me last week. REPAIRED
I _____.
5. I didn't go to see the film because I had already seen it. SEEN
I would have seen the film if _____ before.
6. London is the biggest city in Europe. The 2012 Olympic games were held there. WHERE
London, _____ than any other city in Europe.
7. A man from Liverpool has won the £10-million prize. BY
The £10-million prize _____.
8. The chances of my father buying me a computer are small. LIKELY
My father _____.
9. "I'm going to marry Cathy," Nick said. HE
Nick told us _____ married to Cathy.
10. I don't have permission to borrow my father's car. ALLOWED
I _____ my father's car.