

COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS: THERE IS – THERE ARE. ANYTHING / NOTHING

Complete the sentences with There is (singular countable, uncountable) or There are (Plural countable nouns).-

1. _____ some sugar on the counter.
2. _____ a lot of cats in the neighbor's house!
3. _____ any eggs in the fridge. (negative)
4. _____ some cheese for my sandwich?
5. _____ any apple pies in the store?
6. _____ anything to eat in this house! (negative)
7. _____ some orange juice for our breakfast.

Complete each sentence with anything (negative) or nothing (affirmative).

1. There is _____ in the fridge. We should go to the supermarket.
2. There wasn't _____ to eat so we went to McDonalds.
3. I have _____ to offer you. We just came back from vacation!
4. They didn't buy _____. The store was closed.
5. There's _____ on my lunchbox! Who ate my lunch?
6. Sheila didn't give me _____ for my birthday. I'm so upset!
7. You don't have to pay for _____. It's on the house.