

Present Continuous: Affirmative

	To be	verb+ing
 I	am	working
 You	are	playing
 He	is	jumping
 She	is	running
 It	is	going
 We	are	eating
 They	are	living

Important Spelling Rules

- If the verb ends in vowel consonant DOUBLE the last letter run → running
- If the verb ends in consonant-e take off the -e and add -ing live → living

Add-ing to the end of the verbs

Run		Like		Stop
Play		Hit		Smile
Go		Sleep		Write
Eat		Need		Win

Choose the correct form of the verb TO BE

- The boys am - is - are playing football.
- I am - is - are studying math.
- Ann and Marc am - is - are going home.
- The birds am - is - are eating now.
- Rachel am - is - are riding her bike.
- Max and I am - is - are calling mom.
- The kids am - is - are trying hard.
- Lisa am - is - are dreaming in class.
- My dad am - is - are planting trees.
- The kids am - is - are writing on paper.

Write in the correct form of the verb.

- The children breakfast. (eat)
- We football. (play)
- Ann the race. (win)
- My cat . (hide)
- The boy TV. (watch)
- Ollie his skateboard. (ride)
- Maria to school. (go)
- I a nap. (take)
- Andy late. (sleep)
- My parents coffee. (drink)

Write an affirmative sentence in the Present Continuous using the words given.

- (The boys / play / football) _____
- (I / go / Paris) _____
- (My mum / plant / flowers) _____
- (The chef / cook / dinner) _____
- (Her sisters / have / a party) _____