

C1 Advanced – Conditionals (1)

For more information, please use the Grammar Reference – SB p 204

4. Put the verbs in brackets in the correct tense.

- a. If I were you, I  (not listen) to his lies.
- b. If he  (not eat) that sandwich, he would not have suffered from food poisoning.
- c. Father Christmas won't come unless you  (be) a good little girl.
- d. As long as you  (do) your best, no one will criticise you.
- e. Supposing the police  (stop) us now, what  (we say)?
- f. If you  (tell) me you were cold, I  (offer) you my jacket on our walk last night.
- g. I  (die) of exhaustion if John hadn't offered to take on some of my work.
- h. If she were rich, she  (not have to) work now.
- i. Go and see a doctor in case you  (have) a serious illness.
- j. You won't understand this unless you  (pay) attention.
- k. Even if he  (beg), I wouldn't help him.
- l. Supposing no one  (kill) President Kennedy in the 60s,
 (things / be) different back then