

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

COMPLETE THE GAPS

There are 50 _____ in the USA. The _____ city of the USA is Washington D.C. There are about 300 million _____ living in the USA. The USA is one of the richest countries in the _____. The _____ of the State is Joe Biden. He lives in the _____ House, in Washington DC. Interestingly, there are no _____ in Washington D.C. The _____ of the USA is called 'Stars and _____'. The USA borders _____ to the north and _____ to the south. But the USA is _____ than Canada. The USA is divided into _____ regions. There are people of different cultures and religions living in the country. The Americans celebrate the Independence Day on the _____th of July. There are 5 time _____ in the USA. The money used is _____. The longest _____ is the Mississippi river. The Atlantic _____ is on the east and the Pacific _____ is on the west. The largest city is _____ - it is also called Big Apple. New York is the home of the United _____. The largest _____ is Alaska and the smallest state is R _____. The highest point in the USA is Mount McKinley and the _____ point is in the Death Valley. The first settlers in the USA were the Native Americans. The first president was George Washington. The national _____ is Bald Eagle. The national _____ is a rose.

Most people speak American English; other _____ spoken are Spanish, Italian etc. Most popular _____ are baseball, basketball. American football is _____ than European football. The major film studios are located in _____. Most Americans enjoy eating fast _____ like different hamburgers, hot dogs and French fries. They watch TV about 7 _____ per day.

Most American live comfortably. About 40% of the land is farmed _____. About $\frac{3}{4}$ of the people live in towns.

Some of the biggest shopping centres are found in the USA.

The Grand Canyon is in _____.

Mount Rushmore with the faces of 4 American _____ can be seen in South Dakota.

The oldest university in the USA is _____.

states	Mexico	zones
flower	smaller	six	four
American dollar	state	river
capital	people	lowest
ocean	Stripes	Canada	ocean
New York	White	Nations
Rhode Island	world	president
skyscrapers	bird	presidents
languages	hours	land	Arizona
Harvard	sports	different
Hollywood	food	flag

