- Read the story below. Circle the correct form of each verb. Use the present continuous wherever possible.

Winning the lottery—to most people, it (1.) _____like great luck. Unfortunately, for the winners, it's often the opposite. Ian Walters, for example, won a million dollars in a lottery fi ve years ago. "suddenly (2.) _____ a lot of money," he explains. "(3.) _____it will last forever, and you spend it quickly." And then one day, the money is gone. "These days, (4.) _____with my sister temporarily, and (5.) _____ in a small cafe. (6.) _____a car because I can't afford it," says Ian. "It's not so bad, though. I now (7.) _____that money can't buy happiness. (8.) _____each day. And (9.) _____ forward to the future."

LIVEWORKSHEETS