WORKSHEET 12

An interview with TV chef
ANTON LE GASTON

Q: Anton, you travel all over the world for your TV programme. Where are you going next?

A: Next week I'm going to England and then to the USA and Canada.

Q: That's a lot of travel. What will you do if you get tired?

A: Oh, I'll make my TV show as usual. A chef has to work hard every day!

Q: What about ingredients? If you go shopping in supermarkets, will you find what you need?

A: No, I won't. Next week in London, I'll try to buy lots of fresh, healthy food if I can find some farmers. I know one farmer who grows the best asparagus in the country!

First conditional questions

We usually make questions in the first conditional by changing the will/won't-clause. The if-clause stays the same.

if-clause	will/won't-clause
If you go shopping in supermarkets,	will you find what you need?

We can also put the will/won't-clause first.
