

Quantities

A. Complete the sentences with a phrase from the box.

- We are going to buy ... Milka chocolate.
- Can you pass me ... cherry pie?
- He brought me ... English jam.
- I'd like ... coffee, please.
- We drank ... coke each.
- There's plenty of juice for us both. I bought ... orange juice yesterday.
- Is there ... Heinz Ketchup in the fridge?
- I gave my mother ... chocolates on Mother's Day.
- Pass me ... cheese, will you?
- I feel so dizzy. I'd better sit down. Can I have ... water, please?
- Would you like ... soup?

- a can of
- a bowl of
- a bottle of
- a piece of
- a glass of
- a carton of
- a box of
- a jar of
- a bar of
- a cup of
- a slice of

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11

B. Choose the correct phrase.

- How many grams of butter are in a bar of butter/ a jar of butter?
- My sister always opens a jar of crisps/ a packet of crisps upside down. It's quite annoying.
- Can you buy a bunch of milk/ a bottle of milk? We don't have any left.
- I bought my mum a piece of flowers/ a bunch of flowers for Mother's Day.
- Her dog stole a bar of bread/ a loaf of bread and some rolls. Can you believe it?
- Melissa, would you like a spoon of pizza/ a slice of pizza?
No, thanks. I've just eaten a bar of chocolate/ a bowl of chocolate.
- Hmm... it smells good. What are you cooking, dad?
I'm roasting a slice of beef/ a loaf of beef.

C. Complete the dialogue with the appropriate phrase. Choose from the box below.

a glass of – six – a jar of – packet of – bottles of – bags of – slices of

1. Sarah, can you please check the recipe for me?

3. Thanks, Honey. Next we're going to make the sandwiches. Can you please fetch _____ peanut butter and some _____ ham from the refrigerator?

5. Just a little bit. We're going to have lunch in an hour.

2. Sure. You need two _____ sugar, _____ eggs and one _____ butter. That's all for now.

2. Ok. Here you are. Can I drink _____ apple juice? I'm so thirsty.

6. Ok. Hmm... I love apple juice. Mum, have we got enough _____ juice for the party? Let me count them.

D. Sarah is going to the supermarket. Complete her shopping list with an expression of quantity.

- |                           |                           |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|
| → A _____ strawberry jam. | → Four _____ pork.        |
| → Three _____ water.      | → A _____ bread.          |
| → A _____ grapes.         | → A _____ dark chocolate. |
| → Two _____ coke.         | → Six _____ cake.         |
| → A _____ crisps.         | → A _____ wine.           |