TO BE (AFFIRMATIVE)

Complete each sentence with the short form of "to be" (affirmative). If it isn't possible, use the long form of the verb.

This witch doctor _____ ugly and she _____ green. Witches _____ usually scary but this one _____ funny!
There _____ some green soup in the cauldron: it _____ a magic potion.
There _____ a spider in the corner of her hat. Spiders _____ horrible!
I _____ afraid of them!

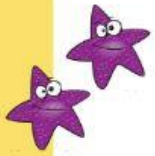

Bird-watching _____ my favourite hobby: birds _____ interesting animals.
The tucan _____ a tropical bird. Its beak _____ really big.
Condors _____ big and ugly birds. They _____ from the USA.
This condor _____ on a tree branch. Its feathers _____ black.
Its neck and head _____ bald and pink.

Patty _____ a good student but her brothers _____ so lazy!
She _____ at school today, but Paul and Nick _____ at home.
There _____ two books on her head in this picture.
Patty and I _____ friends. We _____ in the same class. Our favourite school subject _____ Maths. We _____ good at it!

Dad and I _____ interested in sea creatures. They _____ fascinating animals.
Starfish ___ strange sea animals. They ___ echinoderms, not fish!
Piranhas _____ predators: they _____ small but dangerous.

You _____ really fond of fantasy films because there _____ magic in them!
Some magic creatures _____ scary. Werewolves _____ scary mythological creatures: they _____ wolf men. Unicorns _____ mythological creatures, too, but they _____ lovely. They _____ horses with a horn.

Jack _____ really fond of fancy-dress parties! His mummy costume _____ fine, but his uncle _____ really funny in his pirate costume! His cousins _____ happy in their superhero costumes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS