

➤ Use “used to” or “didn’t use to” with the right form of the verbs in brackets to complete the sentences.

1. Marry eating chocolate but now she hates it. (love)
 2. My father to work when he lived in Japan. (not/drive)
 3. Her grandma able to speak Russian, but she has forgotten it all. (be)
 4. We coffee after breakfast. (not/drink)
 5. A: Did she use to read comic books?
 B: No, she..... detective novels when she was a child. (read)

➤ Choose the correct options.

- They built a hospital here. There _____ a playground here.
A. is B. used to C. used to be
- My grandparents _____ light their house with oil lamps.
A. used to B. use to C. used to be
- A: I wonder how the farmers _____ transport their crops home in the past.
B: They _____ buffalo-drawn carts.
A. used to/ used B. use to/ used to C. use/ used
- I hated ice-cream; I _____ eat ice-cream.
A. used to B. didn't use to C. use to
- This was my favorite bicycle. I _____ ride everywhere on it.
A. didn't use to B. used to C. use to
- Entertainment for the children in my village _____ as simple as playing hide-and-seek or going swimming in the river.
A. used to be B. used to C. didn't use to ➤ Change the sentences according to the prompts in brackets.

1. Her birthday party used to be celebrated in the restaurant. (interrogative)
2. I used to write letters to my friends. (negative)
3. Did she use to write in her diary before going to bed? (affirmative)
4. When she was a little girl, she used to eat a lot of sweets. (interrogative)

5. When I lived in the countryside, I used to play football every weekend. (negative)

➤ Rewrite the following sentences using “used to”.

1. There was a secondary school here in the 1900s.

2. We didn't get up early to catch the bus several years ago.

3. He didn't know how to study English online, but now he can study well.

4. We often played hide and seek when we were children.
