During last summer vacation, my classmates and I had a day trip to my home village. We started early in the morning by bus and got there two hours later. As it was sunny, we decided to go boating in the river for nearly forty minutes. Everyone felt tired and hungry so we had breakfast with sandwiches, cakes and coffee which we carried along with us near the river bank. Then we relaxed under a shady tree for a while to crack jokes and tell stories. After that, we went round the tour for sightseeing. By the time our sightseeing was over it was about 2p.m. We had a hearty lunch of chicken rice and returned home by bus.
