Nancy Mendieta
Student from third A, BGU
15-55 Perú y Venezuela
Loja City, Ecuador

Dear Ms. Mendieta,

Thanks for writing, and for letting me know that you are worried respect to your future.

I consider you should take a personality quiz, the results about it will help you to analyze your abilities and talents in order to go for a career. Also, I encourage to you to get in touch with DECE staff from the high school. They will help with some personality tests and with some offers from many universities.

Although the results of personality quizzes might guide, you must make a decision about your preferences in order to go for a career in the university.

Sincerely,

Beatriz Ramón

Imagine you are the writer of an advice column in a local newspaper. Your job is to answer letters that people write, looking for advice. A 17-year-old wrote you the following letter.

Dear Sir or Madame:

I need help! I am graduating this year but I don't know what to study at the university! I am a good student, but I don't know how to make this very important decision! Do you have any advice to give me? Thank you in advance!

Sincerely,

17-year-old who is very confused!

Respond to this person's letter in 3 paragraphs: 1 introductory paragraph, 1 paragraph of support, and 1 conclusion paragraph. Write 80-100 words. Be sure to use modal verbs like should, could, and might as well as connecting words that show contrast like however, on the other hand, although, nevertheless. First organize your ideas below, then write the essay.

Introduction, you should thank the person for the letter and show you understand their problem.

Body: In the supporting paragraph, you should give your advice and the reasons for you giving this advice.

Closing: In the conclusion, you should summarize what you have said in your letter and give the student your best wishes.
