Theodore was responsible for wrapping all of the gifts for the family. He selected outrageous wrapping paper designs, wrapped and placed each gift under the tree.

During the month of December, many family members from far and near brought Theo gifts to wrap. Oh, they looked beautiful in piles under the gigantic tree.

On Christmas day all of the fifty- nine family members showed up to the Christmas feast. They all asked Theo if he wrapped their gifts. Theo soon started feeling nervous as he looked at the pile of gifts and scratching his head.

So, what will he do with all these unmarked presents?
