Our last camping trip was one year ago. It was fascinating. I went there with my classmates. We stayed in tents by the sea. When we got there, we had to learn so many things on our own. We fished everyday and we learned how to fix a tent. We used ropes and poles. The weather was cold there and at night it even becomes colder. That's why we had our warm sleeping bags with us. We always kept our torches handy in case we needed to go somewhere as it gets dark very soon there. In the mornings, we cooked our breakfast using a frying pan on an open fire.
