

Adjectives with -ing that describe a characteristic of a person, a thing or a situation.

Adjectives with -ed that describe a feeling or an emotion.

NAME _____

Change the adjectives by adding -ed or -ing.

1. The film was so _____ that we left it in the middle. (bore)
2. The students were _____ in examining the dead body in the mortuary. (interest)
3. It's _____ to be caught telling a lie. (embarrass)
4. The children are _____ about the holiday in Spain. (excite)
5. Last night the food we had in the restaurant was _____. We had to send it back. (disgust)
6. The children ran round and round the playground until they were _____. (exhaust)
7. It was a cold, wet day and the children _____. (bore)
8. There was an _____ article on bilingualism in the newspaper yesterday. (interest)
9. It was so _____ to hear that the project was a great success. (satisfy)
10. It is really _____ when the train is late and there is no explanation. (annoy)
11. They were _____ about the result. (disappoint)
12. Mark was really _____ with me for leaving without him. (annoy)
13. He was _____ to discover that he had left no money. (shock)
14. He was _____ sick when he heard that there had been an accident. (worry)
15. I'm _____ by spiders. (terrify)
16. I'm not _____ that he didn't keep his promise. (surprise)
17. Her exam results were _____ although she worked very hard. (disappoint)
18. It's so _____ that he doesn't listen to what I say. (frustrate)
19. There were some very _____ pictures of the fighting on the news last night. (shock)
20. Grandpa gets pretty _____ sometimes, and doesn't even know what day it is. (confuse)