Test – Travelling BrE vs AmE Vocabulary Name:.....

I am a real traveller. I love exploring the world and so far, I haven't had any unpleasant experiences. Probably, because I plan my return[1] trips extremely carefully. I never buy single[2] tickets as they tend to be more expensive as the return[3] ones. To avoid long queues[4], I organize all my bookings[5] on-line. I prefer to travel first class but on shorter distances I buy economy class[6] tickets.

When I arrive at the airport, the first thing I do is to use the public toilet[7]. You may never know how long you have to wait in the queue[8] at the rent-a-car desk. After signing the documents at the agency and paying the bills[9] I need to drag my hand luggage[10] and suitcases to the ground floor[11] where the car park[12] is.

Getting to the city-centre[13] fast where my accommodation is I opt for the motorway[14]. If I decide not to rent a car – because I don't have any heavy hand luggage[15], for example – then I take the underground[16]. With the help of a lift[17] I can easily get to the station. Quickly check the timetable[18] and find the right platform of my train.
