The Partner

A Partner wants to be in a group. For this person, rules and group harmony are important. Tradition is, too. Partners are often reserved, careful people, and change makes them nervous. Many do well as managers, police officers, and politicians.

Famous Partners: Queen Elizabeth II, UN Secretary-General

Ban Ki-Moon

The Thinker

For Thinkers, understanding things is very important. They like to solve problems and make new things. Thinkers can also be competitive. They like to win. They are careful, ambitious people and often have very strong opinions. Many Thinkers work as scientists, inventors, politicians, and engineers.

Famous Thinkers: filmmaker and inventor James Cameron, scientist Stephen Hawking, businesswoman Sheryl Sandberg

/ˈstɪvən ˈhɔːkɪŋ/

/ˈʃerəl ˈsændbɜːrg/

The Artist

Artists want to be free. They don't want to follow the rules all the time. Artists like action and are often impulsive. They also like trying new things, and they aren't afraid of change. Like Thinkers, many Artists have strong opinions. They do well in creative fields like music, acting, design, and in some sports.

Famous Artists: fashion designer Yang Li, soccer player Luis Suárez, singer Beyoncé

The Dreamer

A Dreamer thinks there is a "right" way to do things. This person wants to live in the "perfect world." A Dreamer is often hardworking, organized, and very passionate¹ about his or her work. Many are good listeners and want to help others. Many Dreamers work as activists, lawyers, and in leadership roles.

¹If you are passionate about something, you care about it a lot.

Famous Dreamers: activist Malala Yousafzai, lawyer Amal Ramzi Clooney, journalist and food activist Carlo Petrini
