Reading and Writing

I. Read and answer. (10 marks)

Robert Louis Stevenson was a famous Scottish writer. He was the person who created characters such as Dr Jekyll, Mr Hyde and Long John Silver. People all over the world, young and old, still read his popular stories.

Robert Louis Stevenson was born in Edinburgh in 1850. As a child, he was often ill in bed, so he read a lot of books. He loved reading stories and began writing when he was quite young. Stevenson studied at Edinburgh University. His father wanted him to be an engineer, but Stevenson didn't like the idea. Instead, he agreed to become a lawyer.

In 1880, Stevenson married an American woman, Fanny Osbourne. Together they travelled to many different countries! Finally, in 1890, they decided to live on the island of Samoa. Some of Stevenson's greatest stories are 'Treasure Island', 'Kidnapped' and 'The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde'.

Robert Louis Stevenson died in 1894, at the age of 44. He died young, but he left behind his wonderful stories for us to remember him by!

1 When and where was Robert Louis Stevenson born?

2 What did he like doing as a child?

3 What did his father want him to be?

4 What did he do in 1880?

5 When did he die?
