A special gift

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH THE RIGHT WORD.

My oldest sister was getting married, and I wanted to give her a special gift. I thought about getting her some (1) _____, but she has lots of bracelets and whenever I buy her (2) _____ she nearly always loses one of them. I'd also seen a(n) (3) _____ with a beautiful (4) _____ stone in it. But then, I realized I wanted the gift to be more personal, so I decided to use my arts and (5) _____ skills and make something for her. A nice sculpture (6) _____ out of wood would have been nice, but that would have taken ages. I'm also really good at (7) _____ but I think a wedding gift made out of paper seems a little cheap. Finally, I decided to try doing some (8) _____ and make her a lovely fruit bowl. I thought of creating a nice (9) _____ using the first letters of her and her fiancé's names. I was very excited about the idea and rushed to the art store to buy some (10) _____. However, it turned out to be a disaster. Every time I made something, it collapsed. In the end, I bought her a nice boring brooch. But I'm determined to make her something one day. So I'm going to join the local college and learn something new.
