An interesting house

When we visit my uncle and aunt in the countryside, we pass a very unusual house. It's quite big and very pretty, but the strange thing about this house is that it's got grass on the roof. It looks like a garden on top of the house.

Dad saw an article about this house in the newspaper. It's a good idea to put soil and grass on the roof because it saves energy and it is extremely good for the environment. The soil keeps the house quite warm in winter. In summer, it feels quite cool inside.

I would love to live in this house. It's not very close to the town, but it's interesting and fun, and we could play on the roof!
