Q5. Read the words and
- Put a circle around the prefix
- Put a square around the suffix
(10 points)

Introduction:

Many of the longer words we come across when reading can be broken into the root word (the main part of the word) and sometimes a prefix (before the root) or suffix (after the word). Here's how these three parts go together:

(Prefix) Root Word (Suffix)

(Pre) school (er)

Instructions:

For each word below, put a circle around the prefix (word beginning), underline the root word (main meaning of word), and put a square around the suffix (word ending).

revisit	dislike
disconnect	superhero
overwork	dancer
unfasten	homeless
