LIVEWORKSHEETS

When the crow expressed his thoughts to the peacock, the peacock replied,

"My dear crow, you are the luckiest bird on this planet as you are never caged."

"Because of my beauty, I am trapped in this cage & you are free."

On hearing this, the crow thought how foolish he had been & thanked God for making him the way he was.

Moral:
Never compare yourself to others. Be happy in what you are & what you have.
