

COLLOCATIONS

1. Add the words in italics to complete the collocations.

1 your best, exercise, nothing for you, the cleaning

3 a look, the blame, sugar, ages

2 fired, a prize, excited, food poisoning

4 on holiday, crazy, together, badly

I. Put the suitable verb: go, get, take, do

- | | |
|------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. ... for a drink | 12. ... a taxi |
| 2. ... housework | 13. ... home |
| 3. ... on with someone | 14. ... research |
| 4. ... badly | 15. ... a photo |
| 5. ... a look | 16. ... by bus |
| 6. ... fired | 17. ... a cold |
| 7. ... medicine | 18. ... one's best |
| 8. ... excited | 19. ... part in something |
| 9. ... with | 20. ... on a diet |
| 10. ... ages | |
| 11. ... off something | |

II. Put the correct collocations into these sentences

- I don't like porridge any more. I ... it last year.
- Yesterday I I need to go to the doctor.
- We are late for the meeting. Let's It'll be faster than by bus.
- They met in Italy in September. And next week they are They invited us to their wedding.
- Could you ... me ... ? I can't open this box. Could you help me, please?
- She is very fat. I think she should
- This village is far from my city. It ... me ... to get to this place.
- My brother wants to Can you ask your boss about some vacancies in your company.
- Don't read books in the darkness. You can
- My sister ... in a sport competition and she won a prize.