A Use the words to write questions with do or does and a verb to write questions about daily activities.

1. what time / she / breakfast What time does she eat breakfast ?
2. what time / you / a shower _____?
3. what time / they / lunch _____?
4. what time / they / school _____?
5. he / to class / in the afternoon _____?
6. they / the bus / at 7:20 _____?
7. your classmates / a break / at 10:00 _____?
8. you / your teeth / at night _____?

B Complete the questions and answers with do, does, don't, or doesn't.

1. A: _____ the students and teachers take a break at 10:30?
   B: Yes, they _____.
2. A: What time _____ she go to a meeting?
   B: At 10:30 a.m.
3. A: _____ the teacher drink coffee in class?
   B: No, she _____.
4. A: _____ you eat lunch at school?
   B: No, I _____. I eat lunch at home.
5. A: _____ your sister always get up at 7:30?
   B: Yes, she _____.
6. A: _____ the students eat lunch in the classroom?
   B: No, they _____.

C Complete the sentences with so, but, or neither.

1. Filipino people celebrate the new year in January, _____ Iranian people don't.
2. Dutch people clean their houses for the new year, and _____ do the Chinese.
3. Filipinos don't decorate their doors, and _____ do Iranians.
4. The new year festival in Iran lasts almost two weeks, _____ in the Netherlands it doesn't.
5. The Netherlands celebrates New Year's Day on January 1, and _____ does the Philippines.
6. The Philippines, the Netherlands, and China celebrate the new year with fireworks, _____ Iran doesn't.
7. People in the Netherlands don't give presents, and _____ do people in the Philippines.
8. Iranians decorate the table with special things, and _____ do Filipinos.

LIVEWORKSHEETS