

Sufficiency Unit Quiz

Write your answer in the space before the number.

___ 1) Using information to make good decisions and improve life is ___?___.

- A) moderation B) reasonable C) endurance D) knowledge

___ 2) Things that can be traded for money are ___?___.

- A) resources B) virtue C) efficient D) reasonable

___ 3) ___?___ is being a good person and helping each other.

- A) extreme B) endurance C) virtue D) moderation

___ 4) Not too much and not too little is sufficient.

- A) True B) False

___ 5) ___?___ is protecting yourself from the future.

- A) sufficient B) endurance C) knowledge D) reasonable

___ 6) Buying because you need it, not because you want it is ___?___.

- A) virtue B) resources C) moderation D) reasonable

___ 7) Living life in the Middle Path and not the extremes is ___?___.

- A) moderation B) reasonable C) endurance D) knowledge

8) Are you more economical or more prodigal? Write an example in your life.

9) Why is virtue important for everyone?

10) Write one example of sufficient in your life. (homework, income, shopping, activities)

