THE WORLD IN ONE CITY

My name's Carlos. I'm from Mexico, but now I live in London. I live in north London and I work in a university in the centre. It takes thirty minutes by train. The job's great. I like my students and the money's OK.

My name's Jessica. I'm from Australia, but I'm a nurse here in London. My job's OK, but I don't like the hospital. It's big and I don't live near it. It's an hour by car from my house. The other nurses are nice, but I don't like some doctors.

My name's Rasa. I'm from Lithuania, but now I live and work in Tooting – an area in south London. I work in a coffee shop. It's OK. I like the people and the hours are good for me. I work from nine to three and then I go to university.

My name's Ali. I'm from Turkey. I work for a taxi company. I don't like my job. London traffic is bad. The money is bad and I work a lot – 70 or 80 hours a week. I don't have time with my wife and two children.
