Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs are usually two-part verbs. The second word gives a new meaning.

Match the phrasal verbs to their corresponding meaning. Drag and drop.

Separable verbs

clean up / check out / pick up

a)	to look at someone or something to see whether you like them. to examine someone or something in order to be certain that everything is correct.
b)	go somewhere to collect someone, typically in one's car.
c)	the act of making a place clean and tidy.

Not separable verbs

Grow up / get around / look for / hang out with / meet up with / looking forward to / wait for / kick back / eat out / look out / take in / look after / look up to / care for

a)	To spend some time doing very little, because you cannot act until that thing happens or that person arrives
b)	To attempt to find someone or something.
c)	To take care of someone or something.
d)	To see; include something; allow someone to stay somewhere.
e)	To have a meal in a restaurant.
f)	To search for and find a piece of information in a book or database.
g)	To advance to maturity; develop into an adult.
h)	To do the things that are needed to help and protect (a person or animal).
i)	To spend time relaxing or socializing informally.
j)	To travel to many places.
k)	To keep watch; to look carefully at people or things around you in order to try to find a particular person or thing;
l)	To come into the presence or company of someone, especially by arrangement.
m)	To relax or enjoy oneself.
n)	To feel pleased and excited about something that is going to happen.

LIVEWORKSHEETS