

LEARNING NARRATIVE

Match the picture with suitable text by drop the text below into the box beside the appropriate picture.

In the forest, snow white felt scare. She ran until her feet hurt. Then she found a small house and went into it. She was rested while looking at the house. There were 7 pieces of bed and a kitchen in it. All look smaller than normal size. Starting from beds, tables, cups and others. The princess fell asleep from her tired. The Householder came home, they are seven dwarves. They were surprised to see a young woman asleep in the house. They woke her and asked who she was. The princess was telling his story to thedwarves.

Once upon a time, a child was born of a very wise queen. The child was named snow white. The queen died after giving birth to her daughter. One year after her birth the king married again with a beautiful woman. But her heart wasn't as pretty as her face. The queen was proud of her beauty. Snow white was growing up and her beauty beyond queen's beauty. The queen was very jealous of her beauty. She told one of his men bring show white into the forest to kill her. But when he attend to kill snow white, she cried and asked the man to let her live and promised never returned to the palace again. Snow white then went into the forest.

One day, a prince through the forest then led him to the dwarf house. He saw Snow princess sleeping in bed beautiful. The prince asked the dwarves about what happened to her. The dwarf was telling him all about the snow white.

When the seven dwarfs came home, they were surprised to found Snow white was lying on the floor with an apple next to her. They were very sad to see the snow princess asleep. After that, the 7 dwarfs made a wonderful bed for snow white.

Queen really happy to hear that Snow White is dead. But late she knew that Snow White was still alive. The Queen was very angry. She returned planning to kill the snow white. One day, she disguised as an old lady and carried a basket containing poisoned apples. She went to the home of the dwarves while they're worked. She knocked on the door while offering an apple to snow white. Snow white opened the door and received the apple. The queen went back happily to the castle. Snow white ate the poisoned apple and then he fell down on the floor.

The prince asked permission to the dwarves to bring snow white to the palace so she can be treated by the royal physician. But no one can woke her up. The Prince finally gave up and kiss the snow white because he loved her so much. Suddenly, the Snow White is awake. Actually the cure of the poison that was given by the evil queen is the kiss of a man who loved her with all his heart. The prince was then proposed for the snow white to became her queen and snow white accepted happily. They live happily with seven dwarfs in the palace ever and after.

