

Culture shock for international students

Students going to study in another country usually have to make a number of cultural

(0) adjustments. They may find it difficult to form

ADJUST

(1) ..... with local people and they will certainly have to get used to a (2) .....

FRIEND

VARY

of new things including food, the climate and the language. An extra difficulty may be the different (3) ..... which their teachers and tutors have of them in (4) ..... with their home country. They may be

EXPECT

COMPARE

(5) ..... for the amount of work they have to do on their own or the fact that their tutors are looking for originality and a capacity for (6) ..... thought rather than an ability to memorise large quantities of information.

PREPARE

DEPEND

Equally, they may sometimes be surprised by the (7) ..... of their fellow students who, although usually friendly and (8) ....., may sometimes seem a little immature. As time passes, international students will find that things become easier and what was unfamiliar to start with will eventually seem normal.

BEHAVE

WELCOME