

READING: THE NOTICEBOARD

1. Read the notices on the school noticeboard. Match the three headings below with the messages.

1. Do you like going to the cinema?

2. Men and women wanted!

3. Looking for friends.

Rose College Message Board

A Hi! I'm Patricia. I'm from Argentina and I'm new here. I'm studying English for six weeks and I want to meet new friends to spend our free time together. What activities do you enjoy? I like listening to music and dancing. Maybe we could go to a club together at the weekend? I also like swimming. And I love shopping! I usually go shopping after my English class. I'm in Ms. Sharp's class every morning from 9.30 to 12.30. After that, I'm free every afternoon, so please leave a message on this board, or see me at break.

B I love the cinema and films! What about you? I want to start a cinema club for people who love films. I've got four tickets for the fantastic new James Bond film premiere at the Regal cinema, in Leicester Square. It's at 6.30 on Friday 22nd. Do you want to come with me? Email me on jodie@gmail.com.
Jodie

C Do you want to get fit, or do you like playing football? Don't just sit on the sofa all weekend watching TV! We play football every weekend in the park. We're very bad at it, but we love it. We need people — men and woman — to play with us. It's fun! Meet outside the park at 11.00 this Sunday. Dejan and Ken.

2. Find these words in the text and match them to their meanings.

club

message

premiere

sofa

1. The first time a film is shown _____
2. A place where you can dance and meet people _____
3. A note or words that you send to another person _____
4. A long soft chair for two or more people _____

3. Complete the sentences from the notices above with like or want.

1. I _____ to meet new friends to spend our free time together.
2. Do you _____ playing football?
3. I _____ to start a cinema club for people who love films.
4. I _____ listening to music and dancing.
5. Do you _____ to come with me?
6. I also _____ swimming.