

GERUND OR INFINITIVE

Choose the right answer:

1. I'd rather you at the restaurant.
2. It's worth that film again.
3. You cannot without a mask.
4. Sarah is used to late at night.
5. The customer refused with a credit card.
6. That is too good true.
7. They let them new rules for the game.
8. She's fed up withall the work on her own.
9. Mark is looking forward to his new book.
10. in a foreign country is sometimes hard.
11. He chose his dream.
12. The teacher suggested all the activities before Monday.
13. The child took his money a present for his father.
14. I'm so happy you here.
15. People should their hand frequently.
16. Mr Smith avoided his opinion openly.
17. Janet wants a lawyer.
18. The boy took the money without for permission.
19. She can't help when she feels nervous.
20. He stopped the paper when the boss arrived.
21. We were not allowed the activities after 10:00.
22. You'd better or you'll miss the bus.
23. I'd like some time on my own.
24. me for everything that goes wrong is not fair.
25. Would you mind for me outside?
26. They were asked a form.
27. She's proud the school in the competition
28. There's no point in to convince him