

MODALS OF SPECULATION IN PAST

A Choose the correct word in italics.

- 1 He must/might/couldn't have arrived yet because he promised to phone us the minute the plane landed.
- 2 He must/might/can't have told my parents I was caught shoplifting, but I hope he didn't.
- 3 That must/might/can't be Rob on the phone. Only he knows my new number.
- 4 The judge must/might/can't have liked you. It's unusual to only get a suspended sentence in this kind of case.
- 5 He must/might/can't be happy about losing his job. He really loved working in the police force.
- 6 She must/might/can't have left very quietly. I didn't hear her go.
- 7 Don't be negative. She must/might/can't pass her English test. We will only know when we get the results.
- 8 The burglar must/might/couldn't have got in through a window. They were all locked.

B Complete the sentences using must/might/can't/couldn't (have) and the correct form of the verb in brackets.
