

1. True or false?

- London is the capital city of France T F
- The London Eye is also known as The Millenium Wheel T F
- The Westminster Palace is where the government meets T F
- You can cycle in the Parks T F
- The Changing of the Guard is everyday at 11pm T F

2. Match.

3. Choose the correct answer.

- The London Eye has 32 capsules.
- The London Eye was opened in 2000.
- The Palace of Westminster is also known as the House of Parliament.
- One of the best things in London is its underground system.
- In Regent's Park there is an open-air theatre.
- The police rides bikes and patrols the streets.
- The Nelson's column is situated in Trafalgar Square.

4. Put the names in the correct place

MILLENIUM BRIDGE

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL

BIG BEN

BRITISH MUSEUM

LONDON EYE

TOWER BRIDGE

- It's 135 m high _____
- It's a famous clock tower _____
- It's in Great Russell Street _____
- At the beginning it was dangerous because it was moving too much

- There are 530 steps up to the Gallery _____
- It opens up for big boats _____

